

JACKSONVILLE'S NAMES FROM THE PAST

There are many places in Jacksonville that are named for people or places from the times of the French in the 1560s. See if you can match the present day place with the past name.

PAST	PRESENT
Huguenot	Name of St. Johns River ferry boat
Fort de la Caroline	High school near downtown
Jean Ribault	Elementary school
Alimacani	St. Johns River
River of May	City park on the northside of the St. Johns River

ANSWERS:
Huguenot/City park on the north side of the St. Johns
Alimacani/elementary school
Jean Ribault/Name of St. Johns River ferry boat
Ribault/high school near downtown
Fort de la Caroline/elementary and middle school
River of May/St. Johns River